VERDUN IS AGAIN THE STORM CENTER

French Forces Take Offensive on Meuse and Hold Thousand
Works and Part of Fleury
—Germans Attack The Russians on Stokhold.

London, August 4.—Verdun almost quiet during the Anglo-French offensive in the Somme region, has again become the storm center on the western battle front. The French forces have taken the offensive on the right bank of the Meuse and now hold the Thiaumont works and the greater part of the village of Fleury, according to Paris.

The Thiaumont works, already the scene of many desperate combats, was twice in French hands during twelve hours on Friday. The forces of the German Crown Prince fought tenaciously, driving the French from the works once, but losing it again.
German counter-attacks were of no avail, says Paris, and the works remained in the possession of French troops.

French Occupy Fleury

Fleury which changed hands Thursday after the French had succeeded in taking it, is again almost entirely occupied by the French. Fierce fighting still continues in and around the village, German unwounded prisoners taken in the Verdun fighting numbered 400.

On the Somme front, in northern France, there has been little infantry activity.

Despite counter-attacks by the Germans in the region of the Stokhold river, east of Kovel, have resulted in the retirement of the Russian forces which had seized the village of Rudky-Miryanakia. The villages is nineteen miles from Kovel, the Russian objective on this part of the Volhynian front.

Sakharoff Still Advances

The Russian General Sakharoff's troops continued to advance south of Brody and toward Lemberg. Petrograd reports the capture of 1,300 Austro-Germans in a "hot attack on the line of the Sereth and Graborka rivers."

A squadron of British naval aeroplanes has attacked with bombs German military establishments in the vicinity of Ghent, Belgium. London says considerable damage was done by the dropping of two tons of bombs.
Unofficial reports received in Amsterdam apparently confirm this claim.

UNION SERVICE

The Union Service of the churches of the city will be held tomorrow in the First Presbyterian Church. This is the night for the meeting at the Third Street M. E. Church but owing to the fact that the pastor of that church, together with a great number of his congregation are at Rutgers Campgrounds the meeting will not be held there.

AUGUST MEETING

There will be a business meeting of the Kings Daughters of the Episcopal Church at the residence of Mrs. E. C.
Phister, at seven o'clock on Monday evening. The social hour will be omitted.

MAYSVILLE WATER

From the Reservoir is Pronounced Pure By the State Sanitary Engineer and Inspector — Good News to Our Residents.

Mr. Frank Clarke, President of the local Board of Health, has received the following letter from the State Board of Health through the State Sanitary Engineer and Chemist:

Bowling Green, Ky., August 1, 1916.
 Mr. F. H. Clarke,
 Maysville, Kentucky.

Dear Sir:

We have made bacteriological examination of the samples of water
submitted by you from your City Water Supply with the following results:

The sample of raw river water
shows evidence of heavy pollution with coliform bacillus or sewerage bacteria derived from intestinal discharges.

The sample taken from the treated water supply, we are glad to inform you, does not show any evidence whatever of pollution in the present instance. It is evident that on this occasion at least the purifying process was sufficient.

We have been informed that your Water Company has purchased and installed a liquid chlorine apparatus.
This liquid chlorine process is the very latest and best and most satisfactory method of sterilizing water supplies and if properly operated, we have no doubt that they will be able to successfully remove all disease bearing organisms from the water. We shall be glad to make analyses whenever you desire.

Very truly yours,

D. P. CURRY,
 State Sanitary Engineer.

Mr. Clark some time ago sent two samples of water to Mr. Curry for examination. One of these was taken direct from the river about two hundred feet above the intake of the pump house. The other was taken from one of the faucets and had water from the reservoir after it had been treated at the pump house. As shown in the letter, the first was heavily charged and the latter entirely free from pollution.
This report is from one of the best chemists in the state, who devotes a great deal of time to these examinations. His word can be taken in the matter as absolute proof that the water from the reservoir is free from pollution.

A great many people have always feared the river water in any form except after being boiled for some time.
This assurance will drive away all doubt as to whether the water is sanitary or not. Since the great epidemic of infantile paralysis in New York City and other places sanitation has become a great topic before the people,
more so than ever before.

MCGRANER TURNED ADRIFT

"Muck" McGraner, formerly of the Maysville team of the Ohio State League (requisited in peace), has been released by the Louisville club to whom he was sent, he not showing enough class for the Colonels. He is a southpaw and when he pitched his first game and won he was written up "big" by the Louisville papers. But when he lost his second game he was a punk pitcher and had to go. He will undoubtedly catch on with some minor team. Well, it's better to have been up for just one day than never at all.

DR. J. L. CLARK WILL PREACH

Dr. J. L. Clark, President of Kentucky Wesleyan College at Winchester, Ky., will preach at the morning service in the First M. E. Church, South, tomorrow. In the evening he will be the speaker in the First Presbyterian Church. Dr. Clark is one of the best preachers ever heard in this city and a great number should come out to hear him.

PURCHASE TREATY

For the Possession of the Danish West Indies Ready for Senate-Signed
By Representatives of the United States and Denmark But Must Be Ratified.

Washington, August 4.—The purchase by the United States of the islands of St. Thomas, St. Croix and St. John, lying to the east of Porto Rico and comprising an archipelago known as the Danish West Indies, is provided for in a treaty signed today
by the United States and Denmark.
It will be submitted at once to the United States Senate and the Danish Parliament, whose ratifications are necessary to complete the purchase agreement.

No serious opposition is expected in the Senate, where action will be sought at the present session. Since negotiations began several months ago, the Foreign Relations Committee has been in close touch with developments and its members are understood to be virtually unanimous in their approval.

Lodge Is In Favor of It

Senator Lodge, the ranking Republican member, issued a statement tonight declaring the argument in favor of acquisition of the islands are unanswerable. The only objection is expected to come from the Senators who believe the purchase price of $25,000, 000 too great.

The outcome in the Danish Parliament is more uncertain, although the expectation here is that the treaty will be accepted. European powers which have wanted possession of the islands for strategic military reasons are not expected to look with favor on the proposed sale to the United States and they may bring strong pressure to bear at Copenhagen.

It is recalled that failure of a similar purchase treaty in the Danish Parliament several years ago was attributed to German influence.

Treaty Signed in New York

The signing of the treaty took place
in New York where Secretary Lansing
and Constantin Ilrion, the Danish Minister, both away from the capital
on vacations, met to affix their signatures to the document. The copy which will be filed at the State Department was brought to Washington
tonight by Assistant Solicitor Woolsey.

Details of the pact will not be made public until it is transmitted to the Senate, at least. It is understood to provide, however, for complete acquisition of the islands but to stipulate that Danish business interests

there shall be guaranteed protection.
A clause also is included ceding to Denmark the undefined American rights of discovery in Greenland, a Danish possession.

Girls' Gingham and Percale Dresses Under Price

"I always find the prettiest and most girlish styles in your store," said a mother the other day, and these are just such dresses. That they are offered at reductions merely means we are desirous of a clearance. Excellent gingham and percales in plaids, checks and plain colors, neatly trimmed and well made. Sizes 6 to 16.

We could not possibly buy these dresses at wholesale for the price at which we offer them. But the insistent cry for "something new" compels us to close out the stock now so we can have an entirely new assortment for the coming season.
 Mothers lose a splendid bargain opportunity who fail to see these attractive little frocks.

SAFETY AND SANITY

It may be that Mr. Hughes is a silent man, but it is unquestionably true that when he does speak there is safety and sanity in his utterances. He evidenced the fact in his talk to Illinois callers on him on Wednesday last. Among the callers were Senator Sherman of Illinois, Samuel Littleton, Corporation Counsel of Chicago, and Robert Rathbone, President of the Chicago Hamilton Club. The situation, with special reference to Illinois, was the subject of discussion and Mr. Hughes pointedly insisted that very much depended upon the cessation of what he termed the "hickerings" between Republicans and former Progressives, somewhat rampant in Illinois, and between Republicans on matters affecting State and municipal affairs.

"All should get together," said the next President, "with work for the election of the nominees of the Chicago convention the first and foremost aim and idea of all who are interested in the success of the ticket," and he promised his best efforts to bring about constant and concerted unity of action on the part of all, with his Campaign Committee the ultimate tribunal in instances which he could not find time to study himself.

The advice is excellent and it is decidedly encouraging to note that unity of action is fast becoming the slogan of the party and of all, in fact, who believe in America First and always. It is not alone a party question that is involved in the campaign, the first gun of which will be fired in Maine and New Hampshire, in September—not many days in the future. It is a question involving the honor and the dignity of the flag; involving economic questions of the utmost importance, substituting adequate revenues on foreign importations instead of the present economic legislation under which approximately 75 per cent of foreign imports come in absolutely free of duty. The result of that Democratic idea of political economies is shown in the imposition of personal and direct taxes and indirect taxes in the shape of stamp duties, with deficits in the treasury a monthly occurrence.

Success is never attained by division, nor is victory possible where factionalism exists. Where the entire country is interested, as it is the paramount duty of all to sink local and State differences. With that accomplished, all parts and sections of the country will prosper, with the merits of the land progressing and advancing, as all will advance and progress in the election of Hughes and Fairbanks with a Republican Congressional victory and victories in Senatorial races as well. It must be one for all this year, and all for one—and that means Republican victory and general prosperity and advance.—Commercial Tribune.

The rapidity with which Col. Roosevelt's proposed division of recruits has been filled up with volunteers who would fight with him in Mexico must be something of a shock to the War Department as it compares the Colonel's overflowing muster-rolls with the tardy recruiting at the camps of the National Guard whom Wilson has summoned to service on the border. It only illustrates, however, how ready the American people are to respond to the proper leadership. Americans have no love for the inept and the ineffective. What they want is action—sharp and decisive. The great reason why the ranks of the National Guard have proven so difficult to fill and the real reason why the troops who have marched away have gone with little or no enthusiasm for their task is that the whole Mexican venture as it stands today has been clouded by the years of indecision and humiliation which "watchful waiting" has to its credit. If the men of the Guard now thought that Wilson meant business they would have shouldered their guns with alacrity; and if the people generally had thought that we were at last to behold a nation in action, the mobilization camps could not have held the numbers who would have flocked to the colors.

Considerable amusement was created in newspaper circles early in the week when the Democratic National Committee issued a formal statement in which it said that "President Wilson has kept his pledges in letter and spirit." It is said that even the correspondents of Democratic papers were loth to send this statement to their papers, so absurd was it on its face. Wilson has violated both the letter and the spirit of the Panama Canal tolls pledge, the civil service reform pledge, the single term pledge, the economy pledge and the pitiless publicity. Some effort has been made to convince people that he violated only the spirit and not that view, for he has taken no step whatever to have a single-term constitutional amendment adopted, which would be necessary for a fulfillment of the promise in both letter and spirit. He has tried to break both the spirit and the letter of his pledge to promote shipping without imposing burdens upon the people, but the Republicans have thus far prevented his violation of this promise.

It is evident that House leader James R. Mann is something of a prophet. On August, 1912, discussing the proposed Democratic tariff, Mann said that the Democrats "would add to wages paid abroad, would add to idle labor here, they would add happiness to the foreign laborer and cause notices of decreases of wages to the American laborer." Exactly those things happened as a result of the enactment of the Underwood tariff law. Thousands of American factories went on part time or closed down entirely, we made increased purchases abroad and decreased our sales abroad, so that the foreign laborer had more work and a larger market for his product. There was rejoicing in foreign factories and weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth among the families of unemployed throughout the length and breadth of America. The influence of the war in restoring industrial activity at a later date, does not alter the fact that Representative Mann made an accurate prophecy as to what would happen.

Many people will join the thrift campaign in order to save money for a cash payment on an automobile.

BAD EGGS

Government Officials Now Inspect Shipments of Eggs in Interstate Commerce.

Owing to the present hot weather, and the naturally rapid deterioration of eggs, the Government Food Inspectors in all the larger cities are having a busy time at present inspecting all eggs shipped to market, and are finding quite a few violations of the recently enacted law prohibiting the shipment of bad eggs from one state to another.

The United States Department of Agriculture has established a Bureau of Inspection at Cincinnati, and are now examining all shipments of eggs and butter going into that city from points outside the State of Ohio, and are co-operating with officials representing the State, in an effort to prevent not only the sale, but the shipment into the State, of eggs which are unfit for food.

Quite a number of shippers have been warned by the Federal Inspectors that their shipments of eggs have been containing more than the legal allowance of five per cent bad eggs and that future violations would subject the offenders to prosecution under the Federal Food and Drug Act, in addition to the confiscation of the shipments found to be adulterated.

The United States Department of Agriculture, through the Bureau of Chemistry has recently issued a bulletin containing the following statements:

"Under the Federal Food and Drug Act, eggs, in common with other articles of food, are adulterated if they consist wholly or in part of a filthy, decomposed or putrid substance. Section 2 of the act prohibits the shipment in interstate commerce of foods which are adulterated, and it is plain that this prohibition applies to the shipment in interstate commerce of 'current receipts' or of 'rejects' from candling rooms or of any other grade of eggs in the shell unless the filthy, decomposed, or putrid eggs have been removed.

"In the opinion of the department, eggs which contain yolks stuck to the shell, moldy eggs, black spots, mixed rots, added eggs, black rots, and in other eggs which consist wholly or in part of a filthy, decomposed, or putrid substance, are adulterated.

"The investigations of the department have shown that it is commercially practicable, by the method of candling, to eliminate from any given shipment most of the eggs of the kinds which the department regards as adulterated. It is not the practice of the department, however, to base proceedings under the Food and Drug Act on shipments of eggs unless there are present larger percentage of bad eggs than are ordinarily present in recognized commercial grades of candled eggs. The department is informed that cases of eggs are not allowed to receive even the lowest candled egg grades, if the cases contain more than 1½ dozen, or 5 per cent, of bad eggs. Country shippers who are not certain of the freshness of their eggs should candle them before shipping them in interstate commerce.

"There are two forms of proceedings provided by the Act against foods, as well as drugs, are either adulterated or misbranded. One is a criminal prosecution under Section 2, which makes it a misdemeanor for any person to ship or deliver for shipment from one state to another, or to sell or offer for sale in the District of Columbia, adulterated or misbranded articles of food or drugs. The penalty provided for a violation of this section is a fine not exceeding $200 for the first offense and for each subsequent offense a fine not exceeding $300 or imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both, in the discretion of the court.

CLOTHING CUTTERS MOURN THE PASSING OF AN OLD FRIEND

Cedar Point, Ohio, August 2.—The passing of the old-fashioned suspenders is mourned by the International Custom Cutters' Association, which is holding its annual summer session here. The general wear of belts by men of all builds has created new difficulties for the tailors in giving good trouser fits, and experts give talks on the subject of trouser making at today's session.

There will be no radical changes in fall and winter styles for men. Next summer's coats are to be tighter and shorter than this year's, and the fabric used today was of a purplish green.

"The outlook," and Farr L. Scott, President of the association, "is that the well-dressed man next summer may possibly be mistaken more than once for an overgrown chameleon."

A young man usually keeps on being crazy about a girl as long as she keeps on being crazy about some other fellow.

Tact is what a woman uses who can propose to a man in such a way that he believes he did it himself.

GREAT LOSS OF LIFE

On Chesapeake and Ohio R. R. Last Year One to Carelessness of the Citizens—53 Per Cent are Trespassers and the Majority of the Rest are Employees.

As compared with the number of trains run, the volume of traffic handled and the increased mileage of railroads, the number of fatalities to passengers and employees during the past five years shows a decrease which is very gratifying to the carriers. This decrease, to a large degree, is attributable to the strenuous campaign for "Safety First" which the railroads have prosecuted. The most numerous class of railway casualties, however, fatalities to trespassers, continues to assume figures which may furnish food for thought. In the year 1914, the latest for which complete figures are available, 5,471 trespassers were killed in the United States and more than 6,000 were injured. Apparently the more trains that are run and the more risks that are incurred the more people there are who insist upon walking tracks and stealing rides on trains.

The Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Co. has during the past year especially energetic in its efforts to reduce the number of trespassers killed on its lines. In spite of sign boards, bulletins posted in stations and other means which it has taken to induce the public to protect itself, from figures which have just been compiled by that company it is found that during the fiscal year ended June 30th, 1915, eighty-five persons, including men, women and children were killed while using the company's property as a highway or stealing rides on trains or engines. Of this number 22 were killed in the State of Virginia, 29 in West Virginia to prevent, there was killed nearly one-third as many persons as the total killed of United States soldiers and sailors in the war with Spain.

More than 53 per cent of all railway fatalities has been caused by trespassing. During the past decade there have been passed many laws relating to the remaining 47 per cent and these laws are rigidly enforced and strictly observed by the railroads. There are but few States where there are anti-trespass laws affecting railway property and it is but rarely that we hear of a conviction for such an offense.

Contrary to the opinion generally held a large majority of the persons killed or injured while trespassing are not tramps but are reputable persons, residing in or near the localities where the accidents occur. An especially pathetic feature is the larger number of children who are killed or injured, frequently permanently disabled, by reason of what can only be called the gross negligence of parents or guardians. We are now in the midst of the vacation season and children should be cautioned particularly against walking on or about railway property, and especially against

SAVES DAUGHTER

Advice of Mother no Doubt Prevents Daughter's Untimely End.

Ready, Ky.—"I was not able to do anything for nearly six months," writes Mrs. Laura Bratcher, of this place, "and was down in bed for three months."

I cannot tell you how I suffered with my head, and with nervousness and womanly troubles.

Our family doctor told my husband he could not do me any good, and he had to give it up. We tried another doctor, but he did not help me.

At last, my mother advised me to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. I thought it was no use for I was nearly dead and nothing seemed to do me any good. But I took eleven bottles, and now I am able to do all of my work and my own washing.

I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world. My weight has increased, and I look the picture of health."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, get a bottle of Cardui today. Delay is dangerous. We know it will help you, for it has helped so many thousands of other weak women in the past 50 years.

OUTNUMBERED BY WOMEN

(North German Gazette)

As a result of the men having been called to the colors, the number of women employed in government bureaus and offices in Germany has gradually increased until now the female employees are in a decided majority. The rate of increase in the employment of women in office work during 1915 is shown by the figures for the number of employees hired during each three-month period. Of these new employees the women formed 40 per cent in the first quarter of the year, 43 in the second, 48 in the third and 52 in the last.

Another feature brought out by the report of the State Insurance Fund is the rapid increase in the number of young persons taking office jobs. Within the first few months following the outbreak of the war the number of new employees under 18 years old was smaller than that of those over 18, a sharp change in the average age of the applicants was noted in December, 1914, and the data for 1915 shows that the number of employees under 18 had increased; that war was 141,661, against 83,813 who had passed that age.

It has been demonstrated that a man can wear a smaller hat at 50 than he could at 20. With the advent of baldness the swelling in his head goes down.

A woman may be lucky to have no sense of humor if she is compelled by fate to associate with egotists of the male species.

THE WHEAT CROP OF 1916

(New York Sun)
Harvest has begun in several of the great Western wheat-producing states and conditions seem much more satisfactory than reports earlier in the season indicated. While the yield not equal last year's, the indications are that there will be a fairly successful crop.

The foreign demand is an important consideration in determining the value of the crop. It is difficult so far to make an estimate upon European production. On report says that the harvest of Russia promises well and is even up to last year's high standard. Reports from Germany, Austria and Rumania all indicate a good yield. But there has been a very evident intention abroad to prevent speculation in wheat; and in Great Britain a desire to keep up a steady importation by requiring every British vessel to bring home breadstuffs as part of its cargo.

The Government report estimates that the production of the five important wheat states, Michigan, Missouri, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, will fall considerably short of last year's production. The wheat threshed in Oklahoma and Nebraska is reported unusually good in quality. But in these states, as well as in Kansas, the yield will not equal that of 1915. Last year's was one of the "bumper crops" of the country. It was more than enough to meet both foreign and home demand and thus a great excess store was carried over in the granaries and elevators. This added to the crop of the year will make a supply large enough, even in case of an increased foreign demand, to turn the scale in the consumer's favor.

TIPS FROM TEXAS

(Dallas News)

Before a fool and his money are parted his friends say he is odd; after the parting they call him a nut.

Of course a little rouge doesn't hurt a girl's cheeks, but we think she looks prettier with flour on her elbows.

Do not judge by appearances. The man who has the ugliest countenance in his trousers doesn't always have the most money to them.

It is easier to thwart a villain on the stage than in real life.

RAILROAD WAGES

Shall they be determined by Industrial Warfare or Federal Inquiry?

To the American Public:

Do you believe in arbitration or industrial warfare?

The train employes on all the railroads have voted whether they will give their leaders authority to tie up the commerce of the country to enforce their demands for a 100 million dollar wage increase.

The railroads are in the public service—your service. This army of employes is in the public service—your service.

You pay for rail transportation 3 billion dollars a year, and 44 cents out of every dollar from you goes to the employes.

On all the Southern railroads in 1915, seventy-five percent of the train employes earned these wages (lowest, highest and average of all) as shown by the payrolls—

	Passenger		Freight		Yard
	Range	Average	Range	Average	Range	Average
Engineers	$1972	$2306	$1455	$1916	$1156	$1566
	3810		3505		2424
Conductors	1552	1847	1353	1580	1055	1245
	2696		2358		1749
Firemen	943	1209	649	979	406	777
	1652		1638		1302
Brakemen	957	1109	755	958	754	990
	1736		1854		1405

The average yearly wage payments to all Southern train employes (including those who worked only part of the year) as shown by the 1915 payrolls were—

	Passenger	Freight	Yard
Engineers	$2144	$1712	$1313
Conductors	1723	1488	1157
Firemen	1096	865	688
Brakemen	1013	845	868

A 100 million dollar wage increase for men in freight and yard service (less than one-fifth of all employes) is equal to a 5 per cent advance in all freight rates.

The managers of the railroads, as trustees for the public, have no right to place this burden on the cost of transportation to you without a clear mandate from a public tribunal speaking for you.

The railroads have proposed the settlement of this controversy either under the existing national arbitration law, or by reference to the Interstate Commerce Commission. This offer has been refused by the employes' representatives.

Shall a nation-wide strike or an investigation under the Government determine this issue?

THE LAND PERISCOPE

(Wall Street Journal)

The periscope as a protector of life, although now on the list of destroying forces, has been adapted to make the peaceful life more peaceful. In San Bernardino, Cal., the guardian at a Santa Fe Railroad crossing on one of the busiest streets in the city has erected a large periscope. The trains approach the crossing around a dangerous curve, and buildings on both sides of the tracks permit only a short view. In order to overcome this obstacle a twenty-foot periscope has been erected which extends over the roofs of the buildings and commands a view of the tracks for some distance from the crossing. The watchman can now look for oncoming trains and safeguard the public from the perils what would otherwise be an exceedingly dangerous grade crossing.

FORT THOMAS

To Become Tented City—Officers Trying to Clear Up Discrepancy in Census—Large Number of Reservists Ordered to San Antonio.

Fort Thomas becomes a tented city today when the Kentucky guardsmen execute orders from Brigadier General Williams to pitch all tents issued to them by the government in an effort to clear up a discrepancy in the number of tents received from the government and the number which can be accounted for.

The exercise is expected to give the guardsmen experience in tent pitching and squads in each regiment were planning last evening tent pitching contests to determine which could erect a tent the quickest.

According to estimates of guard officials, it will require fully two days in which to erect, and account for all the tents issued to the Kentucky guardsmen.

With camp affairs settling into a marked routine, General Williams and his staff were planning yesterday a hike to the government rifle range ten miles from Fort Thomas on the Licking river, for practice. Each man will carry a pup tent, two days' rations, his rifle, and all guard equipment on the march.

To Sleep in Pup Tents. He will be required to cook his own meals and sleep under his pup tent. Each regiment will remain at the range reservation a day and night.

Captain James K. Parsons, chief mustering officer, arrived at Ft. Thomas yesterday from South Carolina. He relieves Captain Easton R. Gibson, who has been the representative of the Department of the East in Kentucky for several years. Captain Gibson has been ill recently. Captain Parsons had been chief mustering officer for South Carolina during the recent mobilization of the guardsmen of that state.

Captain George R. Armstrong, Post Commandant and Quartermaster, stated yesterday that recruits who are enlisting through the state in order to bring the Kentucky forces up to the required peace strength, need have no fear that they will be poorly equipped upon arrival at the fort. A surplus of equipment, he said, is on hand to accommodate new arrivals.

Lieutenant Nelson Ashley, of the Field Hospital Corps, has been appointed by Captain Armstrong adjutant or recruiting and will open offices today in the Hospital Building, where reports from nine recruiting offices in the state will be received.

Reports also will be sent to Major Thompson B. Short, Second Battalion, Second Regiment, Lexington, who has opened recruiting offices at Lexington. Many Reservists Called. Army officials are at loss to account for the unusually large number of reservists being called to the colors by the Government and dispatched to the border. Forty-one members of the army reserve, who have been retired on part pay, have been ordered to report to Captain Armstrong at Ft. Thomas, which is reserve base for Kentucky and West Virginia.

Seven of the 41 arrived yesterday. They will be inoculated before proceeding to the points along the border to which they have been assigned. The majority of the reservists are being sent to Ft. Sam Houston, San Antonio, to report to Brigadier General Frederick Funston there.

Captain H. S. Whipple, disbursing officer for the Department of the East, who is at Ft. Thomas, stated yesterday that pay day for the waiting guardsmen probably will be Monday. The last of the rejected men of the second Regiment were paid yesterday, discharged, and allowed to depart for their homes.

One of these men, for alleged desertion of the army uniform which he was permitted to wear, was ordered arrested and placed in the guardhouse.

A question which has been agitating the minds of guardsmen for several days—the order in which the men will be paid—was settled yesterday. It was made known that the Second Regiment will be paid first, then the separate units, and the Third and First Regiments in order.

Pay Roll Exceeds $165,000. More than $165,000 will be required to meet the pay roll for the Kentucky guardsmen.

Six out of the seven enlisted recruits from Covington were accepted yesterday by the medical inspectors at Ft. Thomas, bringing the number who have enlisted from Covington up to 44. Captain Ellerbe Carter said yesterday he is pleased at the ready response which the Covington young men are making.

Forest Bier, who has had two terms of service in the regular army, and W. E. Ferguson, who served five years as circus cook, are among the Covington recruits.

Lieutenant J. R. Gilman, B. Company, First Regiment, has been detailed to take charge of the Covington men.

OUR FIRST FOREIGN WAR

(Chicago Journal)

The first foreign war in which the United States was engaged began 115 years ago, when Tripoli issued a declaration of war against the new world republic. The ruler of the physical African state had larger sums to Algeria than to himself, and demanded a greater annual tribute. This was refused, and on June 10, 1807, he declared war. An American squadron under Commodore Richard Dale was dispatched to the Mediterranean, and was followed by squadrons commanded by Commodore Morris and Commodore Preble. The war continued until 1805, and was characterized by several feats of valor performed by American sailors. The Bey of Tripoli and other Barbary rulers, who had preyed upon the commerce of American and Europe, were brought up with a short turn. Prior to the Tripolitan war the United States and France fought several sea engagements, but but war was not officially declared, and the difficulties were settled without recourse to open and avowed hostilities.

And many a dear girl makes the mistake of marrying a cheap man.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years doctors pronounced it to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

FROM RUGGLES

J. H. R. Writes Interesting Letter of Happening at Picturesque and Famous Old Campgrounds.

Ruggles Campgrounds, August 3.—That glorious rain that we have been longing for for days and weeks came this afternoon about the close of the young people's service. It was an old-fashioned down-pour for about one hour. The grounds were a solid sheet of water, making it quite uncomfortable to walk about, but all were so pleased with the rain that they were willing to put up with any sort of inconvenience. The rain just came in time to settle the dust and freshen up things for the last Sunday. Sunday is expected to be the greatest day that was ever experienced on these grounds. If all reports are true there will be automobile parties from thirty or forty miles. Two of Kentucky's biggest and best preachers are to give the sermons of the day. Dr. Eason of Trinity M. E. Church, Louisville, and Rev. L. L. Pickett the noted temperance preacher and singer of Gospel songs. Dr. Eason will preach at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. and Rev. Pickett will preach in the afternoon. Fine singing will be heard at all services. The campmeeting choir this year has set a high standard for singing.

Rev. T. B. Stratton led the early prayer meeting this morning. The memorial service was held at the morning church hour. Rev. O. J. Carver of Paintsville preached the sermon which was very comforting and helpful. His subject was "A Changeless Christ the Hope of a Changing World." The names of former campers who have passed to their reward during the year are, Bishop David H. Moore, Rev. Cyrus Riffle, Mrs. C. C. DeGman, Miss Hester Ladyman, Mrs. Martha Hinton, Mrs. R. H. Lee, Mrs. Sarah Tenger, Samuel O. Poffter and Robert Warder. The news of the death of Mr. Warder was brought to the camp just before the service. He made his home on the grounds last year and was an industrious young man and well-liked by all. His funeral will occur tomorrow at Canaan Church near here with Rev. W. H. Davenport as preacher of the funeral.

During the memorial service Rev. Overly read the following letter from the venerable Father Northcott, founder and first promoter of Ruggles Campmeeting. It has been several years since this beloved old saint of God has been able to attend. Although in his ninety-fifth year he retains his mental faculties to a wonderful degree as his letter will prove.

Newport, Ky., July 28th, 1916.

My Dear Brethren of Ruggles Camp: I have lost none of my zeal for the prosperity of Ruggles. Nor am I unthankful for all the good done there. Certainly it has a glorious past. Oh how many souls saved, and believers built up in holiness in the years gone by, and what a glorious host of those helped on the way to the upper kingdom have galloped their crown. From their seats in bliss they are calling to us to make this the most successful meeting of all in winning souls to Jesus, and building up saints in scriptural holiness. It seemed to me as I look out into the world that a great vision is on the church of God. If we take advantage of our opportunity grand advances will result. Otherwise Zion will be set back instead of overcoming the powers of darkness. Then let each unit, whether man, woman, boy or girl, resolve to be a mighty spiritual force HERE and NOW and as long as life continues on the earth, and do not allow the idea that this camp is a mere place of entertainment, recreation or amusement to interfere with the purpose of its organization. Such a purpose was foreign to its promoters. Let each cotager make his room a miniature temple of God whose prayers and praise shall be heard and each sermon earnestly prayed for before delivery. I would be glad to join in all but it is not practicable. I am now in my 96th year, and of course unfitted for such a visit and service. But ONE there is whose eyes grow not dim, whose feet never tire in journeys to meet and commune with his brethren and whose power and love are infinite, who says, "Lo, I am with you to the end of the world." Amen.

H. C. NORTHOTT.

At the conclusion of the memorial sermon the sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered to the largest number of communicants ever served at a like occasion at this place. Twenty-three ministers took part in the first part. Just before the communion Misses Carrie and Lillian Muse sang very sweetly "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross." This was conceded to be one of the best memorial services we have ever had.

Dr. Jolly was with us for another fine talk this afternoon. Then tonight Dr. Franklin closed a big day with a big sermon on the "Second Coming of Christ." Those who have been so fortunate as to have attended all of today's services have surely been well repaid.

The women think they are having the best meetings of all the services. And judging from the spirit of their service they surely are not far from the truth. We suppose each person thinks their meetings are the best, and as all seem to have touched the top notch this year, we can just say that they are all the best.

The census was taken today, the preachers doing the securing of the names and the writer of these notes the tabulating. There are to date 442 campers with enough more coming during the closing days to run it past the 450 mark. These campers come from 9 different states namely, Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Texas, Florida, North Carolina, Tennessee and Pennsylvania. 69 different towns and localities are represented. Denominationally we are divided as follows: Methodists 160 Southern Methodists, 58; Disciples, 81; Presbyterians, 19; Baptists, 16; Free Will Baptists, 3; Episcopal, 1; Newlights, 1; Apostolic Holiness, 1; Catholic, 1; Not members of any church 100 of whom 43 are children. Of the total number there are 35 ministers, by far the largest number ever attending here any one year.

Rev. D. Wendell Brown, Field Agent of Berea College, and C. S. Knight, teacher of the Bible in the same school, arrived today to spend several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Kelley Brittain and Mrs. James L. Finerty and Mrs. Love composed an auto party from Maysville who spent the day on the grounds.

Many of our near-by friends were treated today to the finest blackberry cobbler we have ever at our teeth into. For this we are under obligation chiefly to our old friend "Blower" Smith and his good wife. They with a party of our young folks went berry-picking this a. m. and with the fruits of their labor gave the newspaper man with several others this most delicious treat.
